

Press Release

13 January 2020

Be quick to get your Super Saver Tickets for The Royal Bath & West Show

The Royal Bath & West Show returns on 28th May with new attractions to appeal to everyone, especially if you are a foodie, and they're currently only £15 each.

One of the new developments is 'The Great British Kitchen', where the Show will champion the very best of the wonderful produce available in the South West. Over the three days three celebrity chefs with local connections will use the new demonstration kitchen on the stage to create dishes with a local flavour, at free-to-attend demonstration events.

Super Saver Tickets for the Show are currently on sale at £15 per adult, with each paying adult able to bring two children for free. Tickets are selling fast and the offer ends on 1st February, when the price rises to £20 per adult.

Rupert Cox, Chief Executive of The Royal Bath & West of England Society, commented, "The Royal Bath & West Show is an annual tradition, and is great value for money – there are very few places where a family of 6 can enjoy a full day out for £30. We can't wait to see (and taste) the dishes which come out of The Great British Kitchen."

The Royal Bath & West Show takes place on 28th-30th May and tickets are on sale now at www.bathandwest.com/tickets

About the Royal Bath & West of England Society

The Society was founded in 1777 in Bath by a group of philanthropists led by Edmund Rack. We are a registered charity organisation (Registered Charity Number 1039397). The Society was formed with the aims of encouraging agriculture, arts, manufacture and commerce.

Our charitable activities provide:

- Agriculture, veterinary, educational and art scholarships
- Technical events and Seminars
- Practical farming advice and conferences

- Countryside Education
- Diversification advice for farmers
- Education for children
- A market place for countryside products

As the Society enters its 242nd year it continues to deliver a wonderful mix of established traditional exhibits through to the latest energy technology and contemporary entertainment.

The entertainment and features around the 242-acre site ensure enjoyment for every member of the family and include attractions that are spectacular to watch, educational, inspirational, “hands on” or just plain fun.
