ADDITIONAL ROYAL BATH & WEST SHOW
REGULATIONS FOR GOLDEN SHEARS SHEEP SHEARING CHAMPIONSHIPS

Entries:

- A. Enter online at www.bathandwest.com/sheep-shearing by 12 midnight on 17 May.

There will be no entries taken on the day, although replacement entries may be offered if they become available. A surcharge of 50% may be added at the Society's discretion and the cost of the ticket to gain access to the show will not be refunded.

Competitors in the Senior and Open Machine shearing classes will not be permitted to shear outside their class.

Entries for the English National and Senior Machine classes are restricted to 18 entries.

Entries for the Open Machine class is restricted to 42 entries.

Please note: As a condition of your entry limited exhibitor information will appear in the catalogue and on the Society's website. For classes run under Society rules, your details will be verified with the society concerned to ensure your eligibility to enter.

Please see the Society's website for full details of our privacy policy.

Judging:

- B. The Show reserves the sole and absolute right to interpret these or any other prescribed conditions and regulations, or Prize Sheets, and to settle arbitrarily and determine all matters, questions or differences in regard thereto, or otherwise arising out of or connected with or incident to the Show. Also, to refuse and to cancel any entries, disqualify exhibitors, prohibit exhibition of entries, vary or cancel awards or prizes or reserve numbers, and relax conditions, as the Show may deem expedient.

Prizes:

- C. Winning competitors will receive prize money during the presentations.
- D. Exhibitors wishing to have trophies engraved should do so at their own cost, but any engraving must be similar in size, style and layout to previous engravings to ensure consistency. The Show will seek reimbursement for the cost of repairing any damage caused to trophies through mishandling or engraving.

Objections:

- E. Any Exhibitor wishing to lodge an objection having reference to an entry exhibited at the Show must make the same in writing to the Show Office and deposit the sum of £50. An objection form will be made available from the Show Office to do so. If on investigation the objection is not sustained to the satisfaction of the Disqualifying Committee, the sum thus deposited shall at the discretion of the Show, be forfeited to the funds of the Show. All objections should be delivered to the Show Office no later than 17.00 on the day of the award or the first day of Show, as appropriate, and no objection will be subsequently received, unless a reason, satisfactory to the Disqualifying Committee, be assigned for the delay. Should the objection be with regards to welfare, the initial investigation will take place with the Show Official veterinary surgeon, prior to the disqualifying committee being convened if required. The Vets decision shall be final. Should the Vet uphold the objection, then the Disqualifying Committee may be convened. In all other cases, the Judge's decision shall be final. The Disqualifying Committee will consider such objections at a time and place to be fixed by them, at which time and place any person making the objection is expected to attend. Objections will not be entertained from any person or organisation not exhibiting in the same class as the animal to which objection is raised. The Show reserves the right to refer an objection to any Authority or Organisation to adjudicate, wholly or in part, in respect of that objection, on behalf of the Show. The decision of the Disqualifying Committee shall be final.

The Disqualifying Committee of The Society shall include a legal advisor and a Senior Steward of the Shows or department concerned and will be chaired by the Honorary Show Director and Organisers of The Show.

The Committee shall:

- a. consider all protests arising out of the Shows organised for or on behalf of the Society by its subsidiaries or others and take such action as they may deem appropriate;
- b. consider the disqualification of any entry exhibited in a manner contrary to the regulations of the particular Show the Society or of any organisation, the rules of which are accepted by the Society for the purpose of organising competitions.

Liability:

- F. In this clause the term exhibitor shall include persons taking part in any competition or display arranged by the Show, and the owner of any animal, plant, machinery or other thing involved in any such competition or display or otherwise exhibited on the Showground, save for death or personal injury caused by the negligence of the Show, its servants or agents, the Show will not be responsible for death, injury, disease or loss caused to any exhibitor or to his or her servant or agent or to any animal, article, plant, machinery or thing of whatever nature brought onto the Showground by the said exhibitor from whatever cause death, injury, disease, damage or loss arises. (See also Reg G).
- G. The Show will not be responsible in any way for any article, plant, machinery or object of any kind exhibited on the Showground. The exhibitor shall assume full responsibility therefore, including liability for all claims arising out of the exhibition, handling or housing of such exhibits and the conduct of the stand generally. The exhibitor shall indemnify the Show against all claims, damages or expenses whatsoever in any way arising out of the presence of the exhibitor or his exhibits on the Showground. Acceptance of the foregoing provisions shall be a condition of entry.

Health & Safety Regulations:

- H. Exhibitors are reminded that they must conform to the requirements of the Health and Safety at Work Act 1974 and other relevant Health and Safety legislation. Exhibitors must also comply to The Equalities Act 2010 (formerly The Disability and Discrimination Act); the Regulatory Reform (Fire Safety) Order 2005; the Health Act 2006 incorporating the Smokefree Legislation. Environmental Health Officers and Fire Officers will be in attendance at the Show and have the authority to take appropriate enforcement action.

Smoking is prohibited in all buildings.

- I. Replacement entries may be accepted, on the day of the competition only, subject to availability of sheep and at the discretion of the Chief Steward, at a surcharge of 50%, the cost of the ticket to gain access to the show will not be refunded.
